The Birth and History of Golf on the Gold Coast

By Chris Driver and Jon [Pap] Norton

For over fifty [50] years the Gold Coast District Golf Association has worked to build and maintain a golfing tradition that epitomizes the competitive sportsmanship with which our beloved sport was first played, but which also embraces and motivates change so that the game that has become so much a part of life on the Gold Coast can be continued to be enjoyed well into the future.

Golf has become an undeniably significant part in shaping the Gold Coast lifestyle, but keeping up with the population explosion and rapid development within the local community has not been an easy assignment. The golfing community too has experienced enormous growth, not only in overall participation, but in the sheer diversity of people who continue to take to the fairways. The G.C.D.G.A. has worked tirelessly to improve the golfing culture on the Gold Coast in order to make the game more easily accessible and equally competitive to a wider range of demographics; most notably, the extensive development of junior golf and many improvements made with the aim of making senior golf more competitive.

In the interests of upholding a culture of open-mindedness and an attitude of stewardship towards the great game of golf and its place in the future of our corner of the globe, the G.C.D.G.A. has had to constantly adjust and improve to meet the demands of an ever-increasing golfing community, and to ensure that the game can maintain the nobility and virtue which have made the sport one of the most popular pastimes across the international community.

Golf on the Gold Coast has come a long way and the G.C.D.G.A. is committed to ensuring that the game continues to develop while more and more people enjoy the world-class golfing facilities which can be found right here in our own backyard. Fifty years of nurturing Gold Coast golf has yielded a long and admirable history, illustrative of the sportsmanship, personal triumph and enthusiasm with which the game of golf was originally endeared.

The Gold Coast has produced a number of impressive success stories, with many golfers based within the affiliated clubs gaining success at both a State and National level. The list of these golfers who have claimed some of the most coveted championships within both Queensland and Australia is long and demonstrative of the high standard of sportsmanship and competition which can be found amongst the Gold Coasts golfing community. At present, Gold Coast golfers have claimed six National Championships, the first of which by Mr. O. Moore in 1981, and an enormous array of State titles too numerous to make mention of. But, to say that local golfers did not achieve success until after the work of the Association would not be accurate and the involvement and outstanding achievement of Gold Coast based golfers can be seen as early as the 1940's.

One of the oldest invitational Golf Tournaments in the State is the Queensland Country Championships, held annually in Brisbane as a way for the golfers who have limited representative experience due to the isolation of rural Queensland to get together for a few spirited and amusing rounds. The success of competitions from Gold Coast clubs is evident as early as 1947, and their achievements helped to promote golf in our community even before the G.C.D.G.A. dually though, the improved developmental environment on the Gold Coast, has undeniably enhanced the standard of golf within the areas and, by providing motivation and support at all levels of skill and experience, the continually increasing success of our golfers can be somewhat attributed to the work of the G.C.D.G.A.

The Gold Coast District Golf Association can lay claim to its birth of 12th February 1961, although commissioned under a different name. On this day, at the General Meeting of the Moreton and South Coast Golf Association, it was resolved with the approval of the Queensland Golf Union that a new Association should be formed. Having taken the title: 'South Coast Golf Association' this new Associations membership stretched as far as South as Murwillumbah, as far North as Redland Bay and to Beaudesert in the West.

The first meeting of the S.C.G.A.A. was convened at Southport Golf Club one week later, on the 19th February 1961, with Mr. G. Shambrook having been elected as President. The meeting was attended by representatives from all eight foundation clubs: Southport, Tweed Heads, Burleigh Heads, Murwillumbah, Tamborine Mt, Beaudesert, Redland Bay and Dunwich, Subsequently, it was decided that the Association's first event would be an Open Day and was to be held at the Southport Golf Club on the 3rd December, 1961, while all championships and pennant series would be deferred until the following year.

With the prospect of upcoming championships and a need for a competitive pennant series encroaching, the first Annual General Meeting was held at the Southport Golf Club on 28th February, 1962. Reports of the Open Day from the previous year described a well-patronized event with an excellent, friendly atmosphere and general enthusiasm for the game. These early positives were instrumental in laying the framework for what would become the unwavering attitude of collegiality which still permeates the organization today.

The first District Championships were held at Tamborine Mt in 1962, where Mr. Side Gates, representing the Southport Golf Club claimed victory in both individual and, playing with Mr R. Akes, Foursomes Championships. Although the S.C.G.A. had already begun to work towards a better junior golfing community, unfortunately, the names of the winners of the first two Annual junior championships were not recorded. The success of the events was somewhat overshadowed by the decision to defer the first pennant series for a further year.

Although the success of the new organisation was already impressive, the need for competitive, widely-contested pennant series would be necessary to ensure that golf on the Gold Coast and in the rest of the South Coast District could continue to develop. In 1963, after two years of foundation work, the blood, sweat and tears of the S.C.G.A. came together as six of the foundation clubs registered representative teams in the regions first ever Pennant Series.

The event was contested admirably by the participating clubs, with Beaudesert and Tamborine Golf Clubs not contesting the 'A Grade' competition. The series was reported as extremely competitive, and although Coolangatta-Tweed too both divisions, the results did not reflect the closeness between all the teams. In fact, it was reported in an article published by the Gold Coast Bulletin that the winner of the 'A Grade' event was decided on the 24th hole, when a three putt by Murwillumbah handed the victory to Coolangatta-Tweed. Although Redland Bay and Dunwich decided not to contest the event, the tight competition led to the first ever pennant series being declared a total success.

The following years saw general interest in golf on the Gold Coast increase dramatically, signalling the need for even more competitive meets, and further opening the marketplace with plans for more golf courses in the works. The S.C.G.A.'s commitment to excellent competitiveness between rival clubs paved the way for introduction of events such as 'B Grade Foursomes', a 'Reserve Grade Pennant' and a 'B Grade Championship'; all of which were firmly imbedded in the Gold Coasts Golf Calendar by 1967. But, the number of people who now spent their weekends tackling the fairways was growing and, in 1967, Terranora Lakes Country Club joined the Association which by now had begun to build a fine reputation within the golfing community.

On 25th August, 1967, under the leadership of a new President, Mr. H. Jack, the S.C.G.A. held a special meeting and passed a motion to change their name to the Gold Coast District Golf Association. After seeking, and receiving approval from the Queensland Golf Union, the 8th Annual General Meeting for the G.C.D.G.A. was held under the new name. In the same year, Surfers Paradise Golf Club joined the new Association and increased the number of affiliated clubs to ten.

During the 1970's, the popularity of the game of golf continued to grow enormously and the early half of the decade saw five more clubs affiliate with the G.C.D.G.A, thus bringing the total number of clubs operating within the guidelines of the organisation to fifteen. The addition to Helensvale, Canungra, Coomera Lakes, Loganholme and Carbrook once again instigated demands for a wider range of competitions, and the G.C.D.G.A. responded by creating additional Interclub Pennants to cope with the increasingly unworkable numbers of willing golfers.

The G.C.D.G.A.'s passion for developing junior golf saw the establishment of junior pennant series in 1971, and the additions of several different events such as the Mixed Foursomes event in 1976. Furthermore, 1978, with Mr. M. Walker as the new President, saw the introduction of a 'C Grade' District Championship event in order to continue the nurturing of competitiveness between clubs and to promote participation from all skill levels.

As the Gold Coast was established, not only as a great place for Australians to come and live, but also as a reputable International tourist destination, the popularity and demand for more and more facilities essentially created a boom of new golf clubs seeing affiliation with the G.C.D.G.A. The 1980's saw the number of clubs now affiliated climb to twenty-two. Mt Warren Park and Windaroo in 1981, Logan City and Kooralbyn Valley in 1982, Jimboomba and Tally Valley in 1986 and The Pines Golf Course of Sanctuary Cove in 1988 helped cater for both the local and International interests.

The demand for new courses was coupled also with the need for even more events to be added to the affiliation's schedule. The success of the Mixed Foursomes events over its first four years had induced greater interest, and so a 'B Grade' was added in 1980, and owing to the G.C.D.G.A.'s unwavering commitment to junior golf, a handicapped junior interclub series was added in 1986. Another significant improvement also made in 1986 was the separation of the Pennant Series into two divisions, but with the opportunity for movement between them through a promotion/demotion system which meant that the least successful from Division 1 would be demoted to make room for the most successful from Division 2. The move to split the Open Pennant Series eventually resulted in the abandonment of the Reserve Grade Pennant Series by 1991. Golfing developing continued and Sanctuary Cove's The Palms and Arundel Hills were affiliated in 1992..

By the early 1990's South East Queensland was experiencing one of the fastest population and development growth rates in Australia, and the growing popularity of golf within the community eventually forced the Queensland Golf Union to investigate the possibility of splitting the G.C.D.G.A. into two separate zones. In 1993, at the Annual General Meeting, Mr Brian Oberman, who had been elected to the Presidency in 1985, announced that in the event of such a split, the boundaries between the two Associations would be the Coomera River at the Northern end of the Gold Coast, and the McPherson Ranges to the West. The investigation inevitably concluded in the decision that the G.C.D.G.A. would indeed be divided, and a committee was formed with the aim of establishing an autonomous new Association by March of the following year.

The decision was cemented with the imminent opening of nine new golf courses that would have otherwise fallen under the jurisdiction of the old Association. Hope Island, Gainsborough Greens, Carrara, Robina Woods, Un-Fairways, Royal Pines, Paradise Springs, Parkwood International and Logandale all Situated between Brisbane and the NSW border, opened and affiliated in 1993. With Murwillumbah and Coomera Rivers both withdrawing from the G.C.D.G.A, the number of affiliated clubs now stood at an almost unworkable thirty-one.

Fortunately, the committee in charge of forming the new Association had been working to schedule, and in March, 1994, the formation of the South East Queensland District Golf Association with a financial grant from the old Association, split the G.C.D.G.A. indefinitely. The G.C.D.G.A. which had originally managed eight clubs in the area from Murwillumbah to Brisbane and West to Beaudesert, was now the administrative body of eighteen clubs in the small area between the NSW border and the Coomera River, and West to the McPherson Ranges.

It seemed that the 1990's provided the G.C.D.G.A. with a catalyst for change with which they would make even more improvements to ensure that the game could, as it had always been intended, be enjoyed and played competitively by all. With a successful junior golf program now uniformly producing champions of the future, the Association realised that the changing demographics, namely the success of the marketing of the Gold Coast as a beautiful location for retirement, meant that much work was needed to ensure that senior golf remained competitive, popular, and most importantly fun.

Along with the reintroduction of a Four Ball Interclub Pennant event, the 1990's became the decade for senior golf with the introduction of a Senior Pennants Series. The first annual senior pennant series was held in 1995 under the title "The John Goss Shield Senior Pennants Series" named after the veteran Gold Coast golfer. Mr Goss after representing and captaining pennant teams over three decades, successfully organised the event with widespread support from many clubs; four of which were represented in the events foundation year. However, interest in the event grew quickly and by 1999 the number of clubs trying for a place in the event persuaded the G.C.D.G.A. to introduce a second division, which also operated with a promotion/demotion format. The 2003 John Goss Shield attracted participation from twelve clubs and interest in the event continues to grow.

Having had the number of clubs officially affiliated to the new G.C.D.G.A. cut to only eighteen, the organisation was now available to meet the needs of the still-growing golfing community on the Gold Coast. Adhering to the trends of the 1990's the number of clubs affiliated with the G.C.D.G.A. continued to climb to twenty-six by 1998, with the constructions of nine new golf courses and the withdrawal of Terranora Lakes from the affiliation. Clubs which affiliated in the 1990's are as follows: Tallebudgera Park in 1994, Boomerang Farm and Tallai Country Club in 1995, Burleigh Palms and Gold Coast Country Club in 1996, Palm Meadows, Lakelands and The Grand in 1997, and Carrara Gardens in 1998. During this time the Presidency was handed for a short time to Mr. E. Westlake, then to Mr J. Norton in 1999 and the current President Mr R. Macleod in 2010.

With the number of affiliated clubs at twenty-six, the Annual General Meeting of 1999, held at Robina Woods, became the platform from which the G.C.D.G.As administrative team would reiterate the organisations commitment to accurately representing the majority interest of the affiliated clubs. At this meeting, the new President gave his affirmation that the management committee of the G.C.D.G.A. would uphold its responsibility to carry out any decisions made by club delegates as quickly and efficiently as possible.

The new millennium yielded only one new club for the affiliation with The Glades being added to the list of affiliated golf clubs in 2001. But, the G.C.D.G.A. would not be slowed, taking yet another step towards keeping the influx of senior golfers to the Gold Coast in close competition, with the introduction of a super-senior event in 2003, giving golfers over the age of 60 the opportunity to compete fairly in a round-robin, handicapped event,

In just two short years the event has become a complete success and a mainstay on the Gold Coasts golfing calendar. This year will see the addition of a second division and, with both over 50's and over 60's pennant series now firmly imbedded in Gold Coast golfing culture, the G.C.D.G.A. can be proud of a competitive senior golfing community which will only continue to improve.

The great name of Golf and the beautiful location of the Gold Coast have enjoyed an excellent, equally-beneficial relationship since the beginning of organised competition over fifty years ago. The development of a successful golfing industry has played a significant role in the marketability of the Gold Coast as a desirable holiday destination and a great place to live, just as the population boom on the Gold Coast has fed the development of a better golfing community.

The Gold Coast District Golf Association has, in one way or another, been the vehicle for nurturing and improving the game where necessary in order to accommodate the ever-changing needs of a growing, competitive junior golfing calendar, the G.C.D.G.A. has worked tirelessly to ensure that, while we look forward to the future and the safety of the game so it can be enjoyed by younger generations, the importance of keeping the game spirited and enjoyable in the meantime can not be forgotten.

Good Golfing,

Jon [Pap] Norton

THE PENNANT

Only four clubs contested the early series of pennant. In 1997 the Association formed a Reserve Grade Pennant Series to give the over flow of top players from clubs the opportunity to play Match Play. As new clubs joined the Association—the Reserve Grade Pennant was discontinued and replaced with Division 2 Pennant Series in 1987. All new clubs start in Division 2 with the winner promoted to Division 1 the following year with last in Division 1 demoted to Division 2.

JUNIOR PENNANT

All junior events are organised to expose young players to all forms of golf. Golf being a solo sport, the team involvement of junior pennant allows the young players to develop their game while representing their chosen club as a team member. 6 players per team is contested head to head match play. A round robin of matches are played with the two top teams playing a final for the pennant shield.

The junior Interclub Pennant Series was introduced for the higher handicap juniors as a grounding series to expose more juniors to match play and develop their skills to advance to the Open Junior Pennant Teams. 6 players per team was first played—1986. More clubs enter this series as clubs develop their junior programs. 2011 Division 2 was forced to cater for more clubs participating. 2004 saw the introduction of handicap match play which has tightened the competition between clubs.

Patron's Trophy [4BBB]

For many years the Patron of the G.C.D.G.A. was the President of the Q.G.U. in 1997 new Q.G.U. President Mr John Thorsen was unable to fulfill the patrons role. Mr Peter Davies continued as patron for a further 2 years before moving North, Professional golfers Ian Baker-Finch and P.G.A. President Wayne Grady were appointed but time was limited. In 2002 the G.C.D.G.A. Executive declared to honor our life members on a two year rotation as our patron.

The Patron's Trophy is played annually with an invitation to all affiliated Gold Coast Club's President and Captain to compete in a 4BBB Stableford Event.
