Rules relating to the election of the Management Committee

The GCDGA Constitution states as follows:

- Nominations of candidates for election for President, Vice President as well as members of the Management Committee:
 - (a) must be made in writing, signed by 2 members of affiliated clubs of the GCDGA and accompanied by the written consent of the candidate (which may be endorsed on the form of the nomination), and
 - (b) should be delivered to the Secretary of the GCDGA 7 days prior to the commencement of the annual general meeting at which the election is to take place.
- The ballot for the election of Committee members is to be conducted at the annual general meeting in such usual and proper manner as the Management Committee will direct.
