

Race to the Pines – Round Two Delivers at Emerald Lakes

Emerald Lakes Golf Club | Friday 10 April 2026

Emerging junior talent from across the Gold Coast and Northern Rivers was on full display at Round Two of the Race to the Pines series, held at Emerald Lakes Golf Club on Friday 10 April.

A strong field of 45 players teed off in a 7:00am shotgun start, competing across boys' and girls' divisions in three age categories. In near-perfect conditions and on a course presented to an exceptional standard, the event showcased both the depth and quality of junior golf in the region.

Leading Nett Results

Boys 19–23 Years

Winner: Brayden Howlett (76)

Runner-up: Kai Farrelly (87)

Girls 19–23 Years

No competitors

Boys 15–18 Years

Winner: Parker Smith (71)

Runner-up: Kai Hayden (72 c/b)

Girls 15–18 Years

Winner: Angela Wei (78)

Boys Under 14 Years

Winner: Rohan Bajaj (70 c/b)

Runner-up: Jonah Whittington (70)

Girls Under 14 Years

Winner: Ashleigh King (71)

Runner-up: Yizel Chong (73)

Gross Honours

Gross honours for the day went to Flynn Carter (70) in the boys' division and Catherine Sun (73) in the girls', underlining the high standard of play across the field.

The Gold Coast District Golf Association extends its thanks to Emerald Lakes Golf Club for its outstanding course presentation and support of junior golf development.

Round Three of the Race to the Pines series will be held at Surfers Paradise Golf Club on Monday 29 June 2026.